Beasts of doom, known as Espers, were created and unleashed to do the bidding of their masters.

Beings of pure magic once ruled the world with power and command. But power rarely leads to contentment... A dispute amongst these beings turned into an all-out war. Beasts of doom, known as Espers, were created and unleashed to do the bidding of their masters. This "War of the Magi" reduced the world to smoldering rubble. When it ended, the Espers were gone, as were most of the citizens of the world.

Many centuries have passed since the war. Civilizations have been rebuilt with iron, machines and technology. For years the Espers have existed only in ancient legends. Now, an Esper has been discovered and the forces of magic are beginning to return. The risk of another, more devastating war is growing. The future

Controls

There are two main types of actions that you'll experience in playing Final Fantasy III: fighting and traveling. The methods of control are different for each activity. Here's a basic rundown:

Super NES Controller

Control Pad

Use the Control Pad to move your party across the field, to move the cursor on menu screens and to steer Chocobos and Airships.

Start Button

The main function of the Start Button is to pause the action in battle scenes. Press the Start Button for a breather while you're fighting. You can also use it to turn the field map on and off while traveling and to complete the name-entering process.

Select Button

Press the Select Button in menu screens with long lists to scroll the length of an entire screen.

L/R Button

In fighting scenes, you can press the L Button or the R Button to make a spell affect all of your enemies. You can also attempt to run from a fight by pressing and holding both buttons.

X Button

Use the X Button to go to the subscreen while you're in the field or in towns. The X Button also allows you to go to the action inside the flying Airship and to skip party members in battles.

Y Button

In multi-party battles, you can switch from one party to the next by pressing the Y Button. You can also use it to show the Magic Points needed for spells in the spell list.

A Button

The A Button is the main action button. With it, you can talk to villagers, open treasure chests and push switches. You can also use the A Button to confirm choices in all menus and the subscreen. Move the cursor to the appropriate space with the Control Pad, then press the A Button to make the selection. In vehicle driving scenes, the A Button allows you to make the Chocobo or Airship move forward.

B Button

In most cases, the B Button cancels the last choice you made. It also lets you climb off Chocobos and the Airship.

Special
Controls

Vehicles

When you're riding Chocobos or Airships, enemies in the field cannot attack. Both types of vehicles are controlled in similar ways.

Chocobos

The Chocobo is an ostrich-like bird that travels on the ground. When you dismount, it will run back to its stable.

Press Up to move forward.

Getting Started

The game pak's built-in battery holds as many as three saved game files. If there are saved files, you'll have the choice to continue a quest or start a new game.

Beginning Anew

If there are no saved files, the game will begin with the introductory story, without showing the saved file screen. Shortly after you begin, you'll arrive at a place where you can save the game to a new file.

Continuing a Quest

If the battery is keeping one or more saved files, you will have the option at the beginning of the game to choose a file and continue a quest. Move the cursor to the desired file and press the A Button.

New Game

You can start a new game even if the battery is keeping saved files. Move the cursor to the New Game option on the saved file screen and press the A Button. The game will start from the beginning.

Saving Progress

When you save the progress of your adventure, you can replace an old file or choose an empty file. The Save option is on the subscreen. If the option is highlighted, you can save the game by moving the cursor to the word "Save" and pressing the A Button.

Safe to Save

You can save your progress at any time in the field or at specific "Save Points." If the Save option is available, the word "Save" will be highlighted on the subscreen.

Subscreen

The subscreen gives you access to important information about your party and allows you to make decisions relating to the party and the game in general. Press the X Button to enter the subscreen.

Your Party

In this section of the subscreen, you can examine the members of your party and take a look at their current status.

This entry shows the Hit Points that remain for the character and the Hit Point maximum.

Move the cursor so that it points to one of the characters you would like to move, then press the A Button.

Move the cursor so that it points to the other character involved in the switch, then press the A Button again.

Front / Back

The members of your adventuring party can storm up to the front of every battle or they can stay back and take a more defensive position. This posturing dictates the amount of damage they will take and inflict.

Move the cursor so that it points to one of your fighters, press the A Button twice.

The fighter in question will change from the front to the back or from the back to the front.

A position on the front lines of the battle means a fighter will inflict as much damage as possible on the enemies.

By stepping to the back, fighters can be more defensive, taking and inflicting about half as much damage.

When enough Magic Points have been earned, the fighter equipped with the Esper learns the Esper's spells.

Choose a Spell from the list and press the A Button.

Your target will vary depending on the nature of the Spell.

Dance

See Page 56

The character Mog can quickly learn powerful, magical dances in each of the eight areas of the World.

Equipping Fighters

A fighter can hold equipment in each hand and wear Armor on his or her head and body. Equipping fighters increases their offensive and defensive power.

Equip

The Equip command puts equipment on the selected fighter. Different pieces of equipment affect the fighter's powers in different ways.

Select the hand, head or body to be equipped and press A

Yellow numbers indicate added strength. Gray numbers indicate less strength

Optimum

Click on the Optimum command and press the A Button

The fighter will wear all of the best available equipment

Remove

By using the Remove command you can take away a particular piece of equipment from the selected fighter

Empty

Use the Empty command on a fighter to remove all of that fighter's current equipment. Then re-equip the fighter anew.

Survey the Troops

With a quick command, you can call up a list of all the equipment your fighters are currently using ← + Press Left when the cursor is flashing on the word 'Equip.' This will make the cursor point to all fighters.

A Press the A Button. A list of the fighters and their currently equipped items will appear

Relics

Relics are items that, when equipped, give fighters special abilities. Each fighter can be equipped with up to two Relics at once

Select a Relic and press A. The Thief's Glove in this example allows a fighter to carry a Weapon in each hand

The Relic will work its magic and impart a special ability on the fighter

Powers Change

Some Relics add a yellow glow to offensive and defensive strengths

The yellow numbers indicate an increase in power

Relics to Relish

While all Relics have their good points, there are a trio of Relics which are particularly useful. They are:

Sprint Shoes

When any character in your party is equipped with this fast footwear you'll move with twice as much speed in all areas except the overworld.

Wall Ring

The incredible Wall Ring Relic makes enemy Spells bounce off of the equipped fighter and shoot back at the enemy

Black Belt

The magic of the martial arts makes a fighter who is equipped with the Black Belt randomly counterattack when hit

Status Screen

The Status screen clues you in on the experience, power and abilities of the members of your party. You can access the information from the subscreen.

Character Name

A fighter's level of experience and his or her Armor and Weapons contribute to offensive and defensive powers. The Status screen allows you to analyze those factors. By looking at the Status screen, you can determine the strengths and weaknesses of the fighter in question.

1 Experience

The Experience level of your fighter directly affects his or her maximum Hit Points, Magic Points and offensive and defensive powers.

2 Next Level

This entry lets you know the number of points your fighter needs to reach the next level.

3 Vigor

A fighter's Vigor relates to his or her general strength and abilities to take and inflict damage.

4 Speed

If your fighter has a high Speed rating, his or her Power-use rate will rise quickly after each attack in preparation for the next attack.

5 Stamina

If your fighter has a high Stamina level he or she will gain more Hit Points with the next rise in Experience Level.

6 Mag. Power

Magic Power indicates the offensive strength of your fighter's Magic abilities. It should be low for fighters that don't use Magic.

7 Bat Power

Battle Power relates to your fighter's total attacking power. If it's high, he or she will be a powerhouse with the Fight command.

8 Defense

The Defense rating shows your fighter's current defensive power, taking into account the Armor that he or she is wearing.

9 Evade

The Evade rating shows the percentage of enemy attacks aimed at the fighter in question which are likely to miss.

10 Mag. Def.

Magic Defense relates to the power of the fighter's magic abilities to ward off or weaken enemy attacks.

M Block

Magic Block is the percentage of enemy Spells directed at your fighter and which are likely to fizzle out before they can cause damage.

Config Screen

Several features relating to the performance of the game can be adjusted in the Config screen. There are two "pages" of adjustable entries.

Control Pad Down

Bat. Mode

The two possible settings for Battle Mode are "Active" and "Wait." These settings relate to the attack methods of your enemies. If the Battle Mode is set on "Active," the enemies will attack whenever they have the power to do so. If the setting is "Wait," the enemies will not attack while you are accessing menus in the middle of a fight.

Active

Active mode allows enemies to attack at will in fighting scenes, whenever they have enough power.

Wait

Wait mode keeps enemies from attacking when you're looking through Item and Magic menus.

Bat. Speed

The Battle Speed determines how quickly battles will be played out.

Msg. Speed

Message Speed makes screen text appear on the screen at various speeds.

Cmd. Set

The command set options are "Wide" and "Sport." These options relate to how commands are laid out in fighting scenes. The "Wide" configuration is more compact, displaying the command set in a more compact manner.

The Command Set-up screen allows you to choose between the "Window" or "Short" set-ups.

In the Short set-up, the right commands are arranged in a three-line format.

Gauge

This option allows you to turn off the power bar which shows the progress of your fighter returning to battle strength.

When the gauge option is on, you can monitor the return to battle strength of each fighter.

When the gauge option is off, your current Hit Points and maximum Hit Points are displayed.

Sound

The Sound option allows you to switch from stereo to mono output.

Cursor

With this option, you can make the cursor "remember" its position in a particular situation. This feature is useful if you always use a fighter to attack or defend in a certain way. You can set it up once, then simply press the A Button repeatedly to carry out the action.

Re-equip

When the Re-equip option is set on Optimum, the game will automatically re-equip your fighter with optimum pieces when you equip power-changing Relics.

Controller

While Final Fantasy III is generally a single-player game, you can use the Controller option to set the game up for use with two controllers in fighting scenes. The multi-controller feature allows you to assign individual fighters to Controller 1 or Controller 2.

Mag. Order

The Magic Order option affects the format of the Spells list. The configurations give varying priorities to different types of Spells. While one configuration puts healing Spells at the top of the list, followed by attacking Spells and effect Spells, another configuration reverses the order. There are six configurations in all.

Window

This option allows you to select one of eight different designs for window backgrounds.

Color

With the Color option, you can change the entire background, the color of the lettering in the game text ("font") and the borders around the edges of the windows.

Save

Once you've set all of the configurations to your liking, make sure to use the Save option on the subscreen to secure all of your choices.

Fighting Screen

When monsters attack, the encounter will take place in the fighting screen. This is where your preparation and battle strategies pay off.

1 Enemy attackers usually appear on the left side of the screen. If they ambush, they could appear on the right side or surround your party.

2 When the members of your party are energized to a point where they can make a battle action, their options appear here.

3 Several types of enemies may be attacking at once. The names of the enemy types are listed in the lower-left section of the screen.

4 Enemies and members of your party take turns carrying out battle actions. The current action is shown here.

5 The members of your party are shown on the right side of the screen, unless they've been ambushed. Their appearance indicates their current state.

6 Information relating to the current Hit Points and battle readiness of your party members is shown in the lower-right section of the screen.

Battle Example

1 When enemies attack, the members of your party are forced to fight them off in a face-to-face battle.

2 When the gauges of your fighters are full, they're ready to rumble. A list of possible commands for each fighter then appears.

3 Every fighter has the option to Fight, use an item or practice a special skill.

4 When the action for a fighter or an enemy has been decided upon, the fighting begins.

5 If your party manages to defeat all the attacking enemies, the battle will be won.

6 Victory brings Gold, Experience and Magic Points and occasionally a special item, weapon or piece of armor.

Fighting Commands

When a member of your party is powered up and ready to fight a list of commands will appear in the lower left section of the fighting screen. It's up to you to decide exactly how your fighter will contribute to the effort.

Fight

A fighter given the command to "Fight" jumps into the middle of the action and hits the chosen target with his or her Weapon.

Special Skills

Many of the fighters in your party will have special Skills which will help them dispatch enemy attackers. These Skills often cause more damage to the enemies than a standard attack.

See Page 54-72

Magic

While few of your fighters will have Magic powers at the beginning of the adventure they will have the opportunity to learn Spells from the Espers. After you've selected Magic as a fighting command, you'll have a list of available Spells to choose from.

Espers Magic

When chosen, Espers can only attack once in every enemy encounter. Press Up on the Control Pad in the Magic menus to access the equipped Espers.

Items

Most of your special Items will provide Health and Power for the members of your party. When you use Items, you'll be able to target one of the fighters in your party to be the recipient of that Item.

When you're in the item list, you can manage your Weapons by pressing up on the Control Pad

Items generally add power to your party members or cure them from a bad state. They often prove to be useful in long, tough battles.

Row

By pressing Left on the Control Pad, you can instruct a fighter to step to the back row when it's his or her turn to fight.

Defense

Press right on the Control Pad to command a member of your party to set up a defensive position.

Run

If you're not ready to fight, press and hold the L and R Buttons. The members of your party will attempt to make a run for it. You can continue to fight while your party members try to flee.

Changes in Status

Enemies can trigger a variety of damaging "status changes." If you have access to the right Items or Spells you can correct negative conditions.

Condition	Effect	Disp. W.
Float	You can defend against the awesome powers of a Quake spell by casting Float on the members of your party.
Petrify	This strange condition turns your fighters into statues, so that they cannot move or attack. Use Soft to make them return to normal.
Imp	The Imp spell turns the spell recipient into an Imp. If you wish to cure the condition, you can use a Green Cherry.
Clear	Clear makes the targeted fighter invisible. Use Remedy to cure this condition.
Poison	Poison causes the members of your party to lose Hit Points during battle and with every step they take. An Antidote will set things right.
Zombie	Fighters in a Zombie state are uncontrollable. A shot of Revivify will bring a Zombie back to his or her normal state.
Dark	Ink-shooting enemies can cover the eyes of their opponents, making them miss on many of their attacks. Eyedrop does the job here.

Wounded

If a member of your party has lost all of his or her Hit Points, he or she is "wounded." Fenix Down will cut a Wounded Party Member.

Psyche

Some enemies can cause your fighters to nod off. The only action that will wake them up is a direct attack.

Muddled

Muddled fighters attack monsters and members of their own party. A Remedy is a useful counter to this condition.

Mute

A Mute condition silences the Magic powers of your party members. Echo Screen will give them a voice again.

Condemned

Condemned party members will lose all of their Hit Points if the countdown above them reaches zero.

Berserk

This condition makes fighters go wildly out of control. Use Dispel to bring them back to normal.

Slow

Fighters that have been targeted by a Slow spell will be slow to return to battle readiness after they make a move.

Stop

If your fighters have been hit by Stop, time is standing still for them. Use Dispel to get the clock ticking again.

Regen

You can use Regen on the members of your party to make them regain Hit Points at regular intervals during a fight.

Village Locations

There are several villages in the world of Final Fantasy III. In addition to gathering important information from the villagers on the streets and in houses, you can revitalize the members of your party at Inns and purchase items in shops.

Inns

If the members of your party are suffering from a negative change in Status or if their Hit Points or Magic Points are low, you can power them up for a small fee at an inn.

Weapon Shops

Weapon Shops offer a variety of powerful items that will add to the performance of your fighters in the field. If you're low on cash you can sell old Weapons for half their purchase price.

While you're shopping for Weapons and Armor, you'll notice a line-up of fighters at the bottom of the screen. Each fighter will raise his or her arms if he or she can be equipped with a particular item.

Armor Shops

If you're in the market for protective gear, an Armor Shop is the place to be. Look through the list of items available and purchase the items which will be of the greatest benefit to your party.

Item Shops

Items are generally used to replenish Hit Points and to cure fighters from changes in Status. Stock up with as many Items as you can afford before you venture into the unknown.

Relic Shops

Every fighter in your party can equip up to two Relics. Buy as many different types of Relics as you can afford and use them wisely.

Chocobo Stables

Chocobos are available in a few villages and remote forest locations. For a fee, you can hop onto a Chocobo and ride across the fields, free of enemy intervention.

Cafes

While you're in town, make sure you visit these establishments to catch up on current events.

Buy Potions Galore

Losers Prosper

Even if the members of your party are annihilated, they'll still retain their Experience Points. Don't reset the game.

Equip on Party Changes

Esper Management

When enemies are defeated you'll earn Experience Points.

The first opportunity to save progress is in this cave.

You can save your progress onto any of three files.

The Boss monster of the first cave is a giant snail.

Aim a Tek missile on the enemy's head. Don't attack the shell.

Multi-Party Battle

This battle is for the protection of Terra.

You'll find training facilities scattered throughout.

Inside, you can save, recover Hit Points and pick up tips.

Mr. Koits is a maze of caves.

A short fight takes place on the mountain top.

Returner Hideout

The Returner Hideout is the headquarters of the resistance. Terra is the key here. She has to talk to the leader Banon, and make the decision to join the resistance.

River Ride

The growing party takes a raft on the Lete River. While the party fights, Banon provides everyone with recovery from damage using his Health spell.

The Party Splits Up

After the ride on the river, the story splits up into three different scenarios. You'll eventually play out all three scenarios. The order in which you play them out is your choice.

Locke's Scenario

South Figaro has been taken over by the army. It's up to Locke to go into the city and save Celes. He'll achieve his goal by using his ability to steal from attackers. The clothes of a merchant and a soldier will allow him to explore the city.

Locke can gain access to certain areas of the city by stealing and wearing certain clothes.

Celes is hidden away in the city. Locke must find her.

Banon's Scenario

Banon and Terra leave for Narshe to regroup and find out what to do next. Their quest is straightforward and quick. The only challenge is to find a way into the city.

The main entrance to Narshe is blocked off. You'll find another entrance left of the training area.

Follow the star inside the cave to find the way through this open maze.

Sabin's Scenario

Sabin has a long road ahead of him. He will start at the edge of the Lete River and work his way through an enemy camp, several towns and a handful of challenging areas. Along the way he'll meet up with Cyan, Gau and possibly Shadow.

Shadow may or may not join up with Sabin. It's your choice.

When the party boards the Phantom Train, you'll find a save point in the caboose.

The Phantom Forest is a challenging maze.

Cyan joins when his castle is poisoned by Kefka.

Ghosts in the train fight, sell items and sometimes offer to join you on your journey.

The engine of the train is strong, but your party will win in the end.

Baren Falls

Sabin's odyssey leads to Baren Falls, where he and Cyan go over the edge. The fall is long and dangerous. The pair even end up fighting enemies on their way down, all in the name of adventure.

The Veldt

When Sabin and Cyan reach the river here, they make their first contact with the boy, Gauk. Gauk tells them they'll be able to be friends, giving them food. Gauk knows where Sabin and Cyan find a mask that will allow them to breathe underwater and continue their adventure to Narshe.

Serpent Trench

The Serpent Trench is an enemy-packed, fast-flowing river. The party follows the river and makes a few turns to reach the port town of Nikeah.

Nikeah

At Nikeah, members of the party buy items, relics, armor and weapons, they board a vessel and take off for Narshe where they will meet up with the other members of the resistance.

The Adventurers Regroup

Now that all of the adventurers are back together, they can decide how they will proceed. The first thing to do is be victorious in a decisive battle, then listen carefully to the clues.

Good Luck!
